

Because the Quality
IS Better

Craig's photographs are decidedly cheaper.

H.O. Craig,
The Marietta Picture Man.

Do
You know the difference between good, bad and indifferent clothing? When we say our stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's clothing is of good quality and complete, we mean it. The Stein-Block goods which some others wear themselves but do not sell can be found on our counters. Gents' Furnishings in almost endless variety. Tailoring done by competent tailors. We can and will do you good if you give us the chance.

Yours to please,

Sam Sulzbacher's, 188 Front St., Marietta, Ohio.

Just received a choice selection of Shirt Waist Sets, Belts, Sterling Silver Souvenir Spoons and other Novelties suitable for Easter and Wedding Presents.

QUERY:
Why is it that these goods we sell so low And give our friends this splendid show?
ANSWER:
We buy for cash and sell for cash.
Expenses small, stock always fresh;
And business done with cleverness.
This must succeed in every climate.
More proper in our present time.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

MONDAY, APRIL 13, 1896

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

—Hon. S. M. McMillin, of Springfield, has been in the city since Saturday, the guest of friends and relatives.

—William Black, claiming his home to be at Bridgeport, was arrested Saturday by Officer Posey upon complaint of a young man who said Black threatened to shoot him. Black was very drunk when arrested and had a ticket for passage on the Keystone State. A six-inch dirk of ugly appearance was taken from him and he is being held on suspicion.

—Will Cunningham, a former Marietta boy, now of Newport, Ky., returned home Sunday night after a week's visit with relatives here.

—Miss Elizabeth Holden, who has been ill for several weeks, at Mrs.
Buell's, Fifth street, is improving nicely, and will likely be taken home today, or very soon.

—About twenty-five children enjoyed a birthday party Saturday in honor of the birthday of Dudley Chamberlain, Andrews Terrace.

—Geo. W. Summers has been offered and has accepted the cashiership in the internal revenue office under collector E. M. Gilkeson, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Tom O.
Brady. The appointment will take effect the first of May. This will not be Mr. Summers' first experience in the revenue service, he having had charge of the income tax work until the law was declared unconstitutional last spring.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

—The fire alarm boxes in the Second Ward have been arranged as follows:
No. 21, corner Butler and Front; No.
23, Bellevue; No. 24, Front and Putnam; No. 25, Butler and Fourth; No. 26, Chair Factory.

—Editor W. G. Sibley, of the Gallipoli Tribune, who was the guest Saturday of his father, Judge Sibley, left for home Sunday morning.

—Charles Conrath, of Cambridge, was the guest of relatives in the city Sunday.

—Dan. H. Kauf, of McKeesport, Pa., is in the city, enroute home from Cincinnati.

—Miss Ellen Stone, Missionary from Bulgaria, will give an account of her work at the Congregational Chapel this evening at 7 o'clock. Miss Stone is associated with Mr. and Mrs.
Haskell, formerly of this city.

—Harry, son of J. H. Guyton, of Mc-Connelsville, and cousin of Squire Guyton, this city, died Friday night, the 10th, aged about 30 years. Mr. and Mrs. Guyton will attend the funeral, which occurs at McConnelsville today.

—Mr. Hall Mason was up from Parkersburg yesterday.

—We are pleased to state that Miss Rachel Smith, Third street, who has been very ill with grippe, is improving and is on the road to recovery. This news will be very gratifying to Miss Smith's many friends.

—The Junior Exhibition will be held this evening at the Congregational church at 7:30. The participants from Alpha Kappa are J. W. Crooks, C. P.
Wortman and E. C. Coburn. From Psi Gamma W. L. Gee, Edmund Owens and C. C. White.

—President Simpson, of the College, has been in Pittsburg since Saturday.

—Next Friday night the Cecilia Club will have a musicale in the parlors of the Marietta Club.

—A marriage license was issued Saturday to Acel W. Thomas, of Newell's Run, and Lucinda Schuman, of Gracey.

—The following persons have been appointed from the Junior Class as prize essayists: C. C. White, of Stock-port; Harry Briggs, of Dexter City; R.
C. Coburn, of Becketts and J. W.
Crooks, of Marietta. An essay will be prepared on a chosen subject and those ranking the highest in thought and composition will be awarded the usual money prizes at Commencement.

—Isaac Ritchie, of Warner, Ohio, was in the city yesterday, the first time for thirty years, says the Parkersburg Journal. Mr. Ritchie was a resident of this city for ten years about 30 or 40 years ago, and says he made the first oil barrel ever manufactured in this city and that he sold it for $11 as a sample. He afterwards carried on a cooper shop here for ten years during which time he made thousands of oil barrels. Things have changed wonderfully since Mr. Ritchie used to live here and he could scarcely recognize the city.

—Early Saturday morning fire of unknown origin consumed the residence of John Davis, near Macksburg. The loss is estimated at $2,000, with no insurance.

—At the hall of the Junior Order United American Mechanics this evening a lodge of the Protected Home Circle will be organized, the charter list containing the names of many influential citizens.

—The rearrangement of the fire alarm boxes in the Third ward has been completed and they are now located as follows: No. 31, Second and Wooster; No. 32, Washington and Fourth; No. 34, High School building; No. 35, Sixth and Wooster.

—Mrs. Wm. Rampp has sold her lot on Scammel street to E. F. Hill, the consideration being $1000. Mr. Hill will build on the property at once.

—Father Sherman, the brilliant young missionary who has been in this city the past week, closed his work here last night. His sermons have been listened to by very large congregations, and they must be followed by much good to the church. Father Sherman looks like his father; he is earnest and eloquent—even dramatic, and he speaks with a grand, free-flowing style that never lacks for words or ideas. We hope he may visit the Piorneer City again, at a not distant date.

—The Liberty arrived from Wheeling Saturday evening with a good trip and will leave on her up trip this morning. The Lorena and Virginia, from Pittsburg were delayed by the heavy fog of Saturday night, the former arriving at 8:30 Sunday evening and the latter at 1 o'clock this morning.

—Miss Carol Nye left for New York City Saturday night after a visit here with her father, Col. R. L. Nye.

—The infant son of Fred Fischer is ill of erysipelas.

—Robert and Will Leonard left Sunday for Pittsburg, near which city they are employed.

—At Dr. W. M. Hart's office Saturday night there met a number of camera enthusiasts, with a view to organizing a Camera Club. There were steps taken to get in shape a club that would further photographic improvement from fellowship exchange of ideas and results.

—Hon. T. F. Davis, J. P. Laing and Postmaster Henry Roeser returned Sunday from a trip to New York City, where they went as a committee from the Board of Trade on an errand which, if successful, will be of incalculable benefit to Marietta. They are pleased with the prospect, though the matter is not yet in shape to be given publicity.

—The wedding of Mr. Albert Luchs, which occurs Tuesday at Bellaire, will be attended by his brothers, Messrs.
Louis and Morris Luchs, of this city.

—Hagan & Schad have secured the services of Norval Morris, a man of wide reputation as an expert bicycle repairer, and will make the repair feature a specialty in their bicycle business.

—Frank Hagan left on the Lorena Sunday night for the bedside of his cousin, A. W. Crawford, of Coal Run.
Mr. Crawford is in a critical condition from gangrene, which attacked his foot and finally resulted in blood poisoning, though the foot was amputated.

—A man named D. K. Miller was taken off the steamer Liberty Saturday night by Officer Georlitz. Miller was in a pitiable condition as the result of a protracted spree and was mentally unbalanced. A short distance below Sistersville he jumped from the steamer into the river, but was rescued by members of the crew.
Upon being taken from the boat here he was examined and treated by Dr. C.
S. Hart. Sunday he was somewhat improved, but not sufficiently to be able to give an intelligent account of himself. He had $65 on his person and a bank book indicating that he has $500 on deposit in a Wheeling bank.
It is thought that he belongs at Bellaire.

—A party of Pittsburg gentlemen are expected to arrive here today to bring to a conclusion, if possible negotiations which have been going on for some time looking to the location here of dry docks, on an immense scale.
We understand that four acres of land have been purchased a short distance up the Muskingum and that in addition to the docks marine ways for the construction of boats will be built.
The work, if carried out, will involve the expenditure of something near $75,000 and would be of great benefit to the city.

A Valuable Prescription.
Editor Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2625 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bot-les of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength.
Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at W. H. Styer's Drug Store.
